GREENEVILLE

Suden Death of Mrs. George F. Brooks -Holy Name Society Members and Briends Had Fine Outing-Local Brevities.

The death of Mrs. George F. Brooks occurred at her late home. No. 46 Roosavelt avenue, at 2.35 o'clock Saturday morning. Death was the result of two shocks, the first coming Thursday morning and affecting her vocal chords so that the power of speech was denied her, and the second and last coming Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Brooks, whose maiden name was coming Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Brooks, whose maiden name was Susan Maria Masten Fall, was born in Providence, R. L. March. 27, 1846, and was the daughter of Thomas Thornton Ball, who was a sergeant major in the British army. She was united in marriage to George F. Brooks on the 25th day of September, 1857.
Twelve children were born of this union.

In 1865 the deceased and her husband moved to Greeneville and have resided there ever since. After coming to Greeneville they joined St. Andrew's church and Mrs. Brooks was a member up to the time of her death.

Mrs. Brooks is survived by her husband and six children, three sons and three daughters. They are Thomas H. Brooks of this city, Alfred Brooks, who is in Naples. Frank C. Brooks of Portland, Me., Mrs. Ida Emily Smith of Fall River, Mass., Mrs. Susan May Roy of New London, Mrs. Elia Cooke of the East Side. There also survives one sister, Mrs. Mary Woodworth, of Freed-Mrs. Mary Woodworth, of Feed-ill, Mass. Brooks had a large circle of friends who will greatly miss her and who will sympathize with the family in peir bereavement.

Prayers will be held at her late bome

Holy Name Society's Outing a Decided Success.

Success.

Second only to the wonderful outdoor demonstration tendered the Holy Name society last fall on the occasion of their street parade was the liberal endorsement paid the principles of the organization at their second annual outing at the drawbridge yesterday.

The day was spent in a most enjoyable manner. Upwards of five hundred people thronged the picnic grounds, arriving by train, trolley and automobile. The committee worked hard for the success of the undertaking, feeling greatly encouraged by the results attained. A committee of five from the Father Mathew society aided in the success of the day. Fathers Smith and Keefe spent an hour on the picnic grounds and were greatly pleased at finding the society and friends in such a happy frame of mind.

It was a tired but happy throng that arrived at the Main street station at 7 colonis Sanday, and the feet station at 7 colonis Sanday and the secret station at
